Leading Nationalists Speak Without Compromise

Recent Nationalist Convention Takes Positive Stand — Adopts Dynamic Platform Inspired By Crusading Veterans of the Movement.

Editor's Note: We wish we could run the Convention speeches of the First Nationalist Convention in full. Space does not permit. Therefore, we are running excerpts from the speeches. We have given considerable space to the speech of Major General George Van Horn Moseley because of his unique position in American life. We have given considerable space to the address of the Hon. Phil W. Davis, Jr., because his was the opening address. The Presidential candidate, Gerald L. K. Smith prefers that emphasis be put on the substance of the Platform with which his address was in complete harmony. Because of the fact that Mr. Don Lohbeck, Editor of this magazine, carries a feature article on the back page of each issue, the space that might ordinarily be given to an excerpt from his address is made available for the other addresses. It was our hope that a picture of each speaker could be run opposite the quotations from their addresses but a few have failed to send their pictures.

Address By Maj. General George Van Horn Moseley

The text for my remarks tonight is that age-old challenge to the sentry guarding the city rampart—"Watchman, Watchman, What of the Night?" The inhabitants of that city were worried, for they were living under a strain, just as we are today. Like every soldier of all times, that watchman knew something of the dangers that beset his city from enemies far distant. Perhaps during his tour of duty he had caught an enemy spy attempting to scale the wall, while others disguised as friends, attempted to pass the city gate. But the thing that disturbed that watchman was when he looked down into the city itself. There he could see individuals of questionable loyalty active in the market place, as they talked to groups of workers and soldiers attempting to advance their nefarious schemes. You and I, as watchmen, in this critical Year 1948, are worried for the very same reason, and repeatedly we have sounded the alarm only to be smeared from coast to coast by the minorities now in control.

Our enemies have not felt strong enough to attack our Republic openly, so they have adopted the plan of gradual infiltration, something far more dangerous than open attack, especially as our people refuse to recognize the dangers of the tragedy. While doing this, they are trying to bleed us white, as directed by Lenin, and so weaken us for the kill. They would undermine our Army if they could and certainly they are making the effort. You and I have repeatedly recommended a house cleaning that would eliminate all disloyal citizens from our government, local, state and national, especially where those rats occupy salient places, the control of which is so vitally necessary in the event of a national emergency. I have in mind leadership in all defense forces, in labor unions, civil police forces, and in all those facilities furnishing light, water and transportation to the public.

When efforts have been made to awaken our people to the dangers those very same enemies, by skillful propaganda, too often using government facilities and money taken from your taxes, have dissipated the fears of our people, saying—why worry about the Communists, there are so few of them in the United States. Are there only a few? The fact is, there are thousands upon thousands. They are skillfully camouflaged behind innocent sounding fronts while they have organized, bred and grown in strength, and in brazen disregard of the rights of all those honest-to-God Christian Americans who love our Republic and who stand ready to fight for its safety. To our shame, it must be recorded that some few Christians have sold out for a mess of pottage, even so-called Christian Ministers and Clergymen.

For fifteen years, large numbers of these disloyal individuals have been camouflaged under the banner of the New Deal. This was in direct compliance with their leaders' instructions when Earl Browder ordered—"Vote for the New Deal, that is our stepping stone to power." Today they are "feeling their oats." They believe they are strong enough to come out into the open and camp alone. Let us pray that they may continue to do so, and thus split the vote of our enemies, paving the way for a thorough house cleaning.

The individual citizen can think as he likes. No law can control the workings of the human mind. The citizens can be interested in radical changes in our government, and he can talk and write about them, if he likes. Should he be able to convince the majority to his way of thinking, he may, by the orderly, lawful processes, recognized by our Constitution, effect these changes. But when he and his followers, still a minority, attempt to ram their nefarious schemes down the throats of the great majority by "bloody revolution" if necessary, as they boast, that is treason, and all such should be promptly tried and lined up and shot. Such a course would be right and lawful but the reason we cannot follow it is that all those rats have a vote, and unfortunately, in our system of government, many a practical politician will sell out his birthright for a mess of votes, no matter how low may be the creatures possessing those votes. It is that very situation that has finally destroyed every Republic in history, and we will be no exception unless we wake up, put our armor on, and meet the issue squarely.

Are these Communist rats just a loose mob of unorganized individuals? No, they are perfectly organized, from top to bottom, on a worldwide basis. Their Commander-in-Chief lives in Moscow. Listen to his last directive, as published in a Congressional document. Stalin said this:

"I consider that the Communist Party of the United States is one of the few Communist Parties to which history has given decisive tasks from the point of view of the World Revolutionary Movement. The revolutionary crisis has not yet reached the United States, but we already have knowledge of numerous facts which suggest that it is approaching. It is necessary that the Communist Party should be capable of meeting the moment of crisis, fully equipped to take the direction of future class wars in the United States. You must prepare for that, Comrades, with all your strength and by every means; you must constantly improve and bolshevize the American Communist Party. You must forge real revolutionary leaders of the proletariat, who will be capable of leading millions of American workers toward the revolutionary class war."

Let's be fair as we consider present day Russia. She is largely our baby. After watching her cruel regime for some 16 years, we recognized her and accepted her in our camp. Later, we nourished her, armed her, fought shoulder to shoulder with her as we assisted her in destroying the only power in Central Europe that had not only stopped the march of Bolshevism but also the march of Russia to Constantinople and Western Europe.

Prime Minister MacKenzie King, in retiring a few days ago, warned that Communism was the greatest menace of our times, and that at any hour free nations of the world might have to defend their freedom with their lives.

Now a word about UN. You and I are deeply interested in world peace. But we insist that in our efforts to establish it, the integrity of our Republic be fully preserved. Today, speakers are so often booed if they mention George Washington's advice, that we should mind our own business in a warring world. Our enemies use the word "Isolationists" to smear the loyal citizen who believing in world peace is not willing to destroy our Republic to secure it. But there is another word that George Washington might have used in the same sense, a word that cannot be booed down, for it is the strongest influence in the world today, and that is "nationalism." Nationalism has advanced by leaps and bounds all over the world. It is the influence of nationalism that first dismembered and finally destroyed the British Empire and Commonwealth. Egypt, India, Burma, Canada, Australia, South African Republic, Sudan, Hong Kong, are all gone, or going. We are the only sucker in the world preaching internationalism. Russia believes in UN, conditionally, that is, one world ruled by Russia. The Zionist Jews have a dream of one world, administered by the Jews, with headquarters in Palestine. Fortunately, for the world, all Jews are not Zionists. Recently, Lessing J. Rosenwald, head of the anti-Zionist American Council for Judaism, sounded a warning. I quote him, as published in the magazine, Time:

"The State of Israel is not the state or home land of the Jewish people. To Americans of Jewish faith, it is a foreign state. Our single and exclusive national identity is to the United States. American citizens have no right to participate in the political life of the State of Israel, except through the proper agencies and procedure of the (U. S.) Government."

In other words, American Jews are in the same position as Irish Americans, German Americans, Italian Americans, etc. The country of their allegiance must be the United States, and no other.

The Constitution of the United States clearly recognizes the decentralization to the States of all rights and powers, except those few which were given to the Federal Government itself, that is, State Nationalism was fully recognized and it is a basic principle in our Union. The people of this great State of Missouri would not permit their affairs to be run by a gang in Texas or California, for example. We in Georgia reject all the advice we get from the North, generally from States knowing little or nothing of our local problems. The Constitution gave few specific powers to the Federal Government, leaving the States in free possession of all other rights and powers. We don't want to be governed from Moscow, from Jerusalem, or from Washington, except in those few national problems which were assigned specifically to the Federal Government.

I warn the American people not to be led astray by reports that Stalin had a long friendly conference with this or that diplomat. Stalin is the mouthpiece of the Russian Political Bureau, that forms Russian policy and governs the Union. He does not act alone, he cannot. Two basic principles govern him. They did not come from his fertile brain, but he fell heir to them. The first is a legacy from the Czars. For well over one hundred years Russia has planned to march on, take Constantinople for the purpose of becoming a power in the Mediterranean Sea, at the same time extending her control over Western Europe.

THE CROSS AND THE FLAG

The second fundamental policy governing Stalin is not quite so old; it comes from Lenin. Here it is in Lenin's own words:

"If war is waged by the proletariat after it has conquered the bourgeoisie in its own country (as in Russia), and is waged with the object of strengthening and extending socialism, such a war is legitimate and 'holy'."

What prevented Russia from achieving these ambitions? I repeat, it was the existence of the German people in Central Europe. Shortly before World War II, that wonderful Queen, Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, stated, in effect, that while she held no brief for Germany she thought it was a great mistake to so crush Germany that it could not continue to serve as a buffer against oncoming Bolshevism in Europe.

But, my friends and fellow watchman, the immediate problem before us tonight is in the answer to the question, what is to be our course during the '48 campaign? Permit me to give you my answer.

We shall continue to be militant Christian nationalists, always on guard as watchmen.

We shall always proceed lawfully, supporting law and order, and insisting that our enemies be compelled to act in the same way.

We shall always work in the interest of honorable world peace — a peace fully safe guarding the integrity of our nation — but should our Republic become involved in war or revolution, rightly or wrongly, we will defend it to our last drop of blood.

We will work for the election of a strong Congress, that will enact wise legislation, to be faithfully administered by a purged White House.

We demand loyalty in our leaders throughout our Government, national, state and local, and we insist that each and every citizen whose allegiance to his club, his union, his tribe, or his native state, takes precedent over his allegiance to the United States, be denied suffrage and driven from our shores.

We demand that our doors be closed to immigration. Thousands of refugees have been run into this country from Central Europe since 1933, illegally. Mr. J. Edgar Hoover states in his June report of this year that 4,555 members of a group of 5,393 Communists investigated, were either of foreign birth, married to immigrants, or born of immigrant parents.

We demand that the taboo be removed from the word Jew; and the Jewish problem be brought out into the open, thoroughly discussed and solved for all time in the interest of Christian America.

State Capitols must be moved from the District of Columbia and returned to their respective States, where they belong, leaving the States in full control of their constitutional powers and rights. No state will permit its affairs to fall under the control or the administration of a mob of the proletariat, be they white or black, Christian or Jew, thus while recognizing nationalism in world affairs, we insist upon it for each state according to constitutional law.

As to the problem of housing, there will be plenty of houses available if the enemies within our gates are properly housed behind barbed wire, where they belong. As to education, the state should accept no Federal aid if with it they must accept un-American professors and teachers, and un-American doctrine.

Recently, I had the honor of being a pallbearer at the funeral of that grand old soldier, John J. Pershing. In closing, I want to give you a warning from him, when he said:

"I should like to think the time will come when war will be banished from the earth. I should like to believe too that never again will the gnarled and twisted ambitions of any one individual in authority be permitted to plunge the world into agony. And yet, even Democracy is safe from the dominion of the autocrat only so long as an intelligent and patriotic people hold fast the reins of government."

Eighty years ago, Lord Macaulay wrote a warning letter to this country, which has become a classic, and often quoted, for it has been proven to be so true. At the end of that letter he said, in effect—your Republic will be as fearfully plundered and laid waste in the twentieth century as was the Roman Empire in the fifth, but with this one difference, the huns and vandals who destroyed the Roman Empire came from without, but the huns and vandals that will one day destroy and lay waste your United States of America, will come from within, engendered by your own institutions.

You and I, as militant Christian nationalists, must see to it that that prophecy can never come true.

Address By Hon. Phil W. Davis, Jr.

Mr. Chairman and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Christian Nationalist Convention:

We are met to inaugurate for America a new, a Christian and a Nationalist Party. We assemble here in the heart of this the most magnificent Republic that ever the sun shone on, the last, best hope of earth, yet a Republic whose right to live is challenged, not by foreign enemies only, but by enemies far more dangerous, aliens and traitors within.

Mark you the word, within. Not merely within the boundaries of the Nation, but within its very government itself. Of all the ills that can befall a republic the most fatal in its possibilities is the presence of traitors within its government.

Such is the crisis of this hour. It is a crisis fraught with judgment and sentence not alone for the life or the death of the Great Republic, but for the welfare or the distastes of the living throughout the world and of their posterity down the years, even until the Master of all men shall come again.

If the gravity of this state of things is told with truth, yet more must be said. While the temporal welfare of mankind, born and unborn, is laid upon the balances of this great decision which America soon must make, within the whole lies a vaster issue for determination. The eternal happiness or the everlasting misery of these human souls will receive the impact of that great decision which we face at this the crossroads of all time, for as I shall briefly point out to you, the foreign enemy and the domestic traitor envision among the objects of their conspiracy not only the death of America but the destruction of the faith of Christ.

Truly the crisis which we consider in this hall in these hours is a crisis superlative in its scope and infinite in its consequence.

Equally it is certain that the corrupt or cowardly political parasites who wearing the badge of the Democratic Party or the badge of the Republican Party, the mercenary miscreants who administer our government to deceive our people and to deliver our Country to its enemies, the faithless leaders who have created the danger and are authors of the emergency,—equally is it certain that these misrepresentatives of the American people give us no hope for relief. Further reliance upon these unjust stewards will end, not in recovery, but in death.

Surely the fang of the wolf will not heal the flesh he has torn, nor will the poison of the serpent cure the victim smitten by his venomous bite.

And so, from logic, necessity and duty, a new political party, for the defense of America, against her enemies, foreign and domestic, must arise, and here tonight the Christian Nationalist Party, dedicating itself to that noble task, is born.

It is hardly required of me to say to you that the anxiety which in all these later years I have felt daily lest my country perish becomes tonight a concern which is sharpened to the quickness of consecration, for I realize that this congregation of American patriots stands now in the pass behind which the righteous hopes of all men are guarded.

I congratulate all the loyal sons and daughters of America here upon your membership in this Convention, in which a movement of patriotic purpose and power, linked with the destiny of America, charting its course and giving form to its future, is begun. Do not doubt that in this assembly for God and Country, each of you joins in the making of history for the ages, and lifts sanctified hands to a sacred task.

I congratulate you again, and I felicitate our Country, that in the forefront of this movement is an incomparable leadership. Of two of our chiefs it is my privilege to speak from personal acquaintance. They are here upon the platform and we will be privileged to hear their addresses. One is at the lustrous meridian splendor of his prime, the magnificent publicist who has issued the call for this Convention, an American who with consummate ability, courage, energy, faith, loyalty and wisdom has done more in these recent years to restrain the destructive hands that America's foes have laid upon its traditions than has any other man. Out of turn, but because it is an honor I wish to claim, I salute him now as the greatest orator upon the continent, upon whose able genius consecrated to the service of his Country, discerning men and women all over this land rely for guidance and generalship in the coming battle. The other is the brave, brilliant and philosophic speaker whom I shall introduce to you when I shall conclude. Dedicating the service of his gifted intellect and of his loyal heart to the re-establishment of our National independence and honor, standing at life's bright beginning, he already has suffered to the point of prison persecution from the despoilers of America. The spirit of the pioneers and of the heroes of the Revolution animates his own, and to the young men and women of America his patriotic principles, precepts and practices are those of shining example.

We turn to the examination of the problem, so extensive and insistent, whose depths we meet to fathom and whose solution we here begin. Our country calls to us to answer fateful questions. What shall our Republic do to be saved? By what thorny pathways shall America leave the swampy lowlands of national confusion, debasement and dishonor into the which she now finds herself to have been betrayed? How shall she reach again the highroad of national independence, integrity, safety and self-respect? Through what defeats, sacrifices, sufferings, splendors, victories, shall she be redeemed? How shall this holy house of our fathers, this home of ancient glory and honor, be made still to stand despite the dangers of foreign intrigue, domestic treachery and political folly?

Short years ago, almost within the memory of the youngest in this hall, the United States of America, in the words of one of her statesmen, was a republic resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountain of eternal truth, a republic in which every citizen was a sovereign but no one cared or dared to wear a crown, a republic that stood erect while empires all around were bowed beneath the weight of their own armaments, a republic whose flag was loved while other flags were only feared, a republic which shook thrones and dissolved aristocracies by the force of its silent example and gave light to those who sat in darkness and the shadow of night, a republic whose course, like the path of the just, "as a shining light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

But what of this republic today? It is ridden with the evil consequences of its own conduct in entering within a quarter of a century two wars in Europe and another in Asia initiated by combatant nations with whose ambitions and aspirations the people of America have neither interest nor concern. These wars were entered by America against the overwhelming sentiment of the vast majority of its native born citizens. They were entered through the machinations of foreign schemers collaborating with treacherous politicians unworthy of American birth and citizenship, the one aiming at the subversion of the wealth and manhood of our Country to their design to rule the world, the other coveting with false ambition and absurd vanity greater power over their fellows, both dominated by the corrupt design to convert to the gratification of their own selfish lusts for gain the liberties and the happiness of the people of America and of the world itself.

This Republic, so lately the symbol of freedom throughout the earth, but now through the maneuver of foreign enemies and of false leaders, become an unprovoked aggressor and invader of the homelands of other peoples, at this moment is the object of the hatred of the rest of mankind, equally detested by those whom it attacked and by those with whom it made common cause in the hateful, hated and hate inspiring business of war.

This enmity toward America is exaggerated by the hypocrisy with which its forays upon the rest of the world have been committed. Our faithless politicians, leading us astray into the quarrels of others, have defiled their souls and deceived our people with the hypocritical pretext that these wars were being fought to make the world safe for democracy, to liberate the oppressed and to achieve a just and durable peace. In all the sordid series of alien entanglements, foreign alliances and aggressive wars in which for nearly a third of a century now the usurpers of our national power have involved our Country, these malefactors, prompted and supported by the Jew owned or controlled channels of public information, the press, the radio and the screen, these malefactors of deceit and destruction have insistently proclaimed the hypocritical and paradoxical pretence that they make war to obtain peace, that they seek conquest to spread liberty, that they destroy to create, that they kill to give life. Leading us into the hell of war the Democrat-Republican coalition, "agayne and agayne and agayne," have promised the victims of their villainy that at the end of the bloody trail the brotherhood and peace of everlasting paradise would be the portion of those who sacrificed.

Hypocrisy is indeed a dual vice, which spreads the pretence of virtue upon every vice.

God Himself, in the days of His flesh, condemned with divine vehemence this odious offense.

To the generation of Jew deceivers of his time, He said:

"Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness."

Again we read:

"He began to say unto his disciples, first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy."

And again:

"Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them."

At the end of this wretched era of global wars for which the hypocritical imposters who have deceived America, the bi-partisan Democrat-Republican administration of our government, are responsible, we behold every vow they have made dishonored, every promise they gave stripped naked in its falsity, every policy they pursued a delusion. We behold two-thirds of the people of Europe chained to the chariot wheels of the bloodthirsty and utterly depraved Jewish criminals, who by mass assassination and starvation have subjugated the vast Empire of Russia and hold it in slavery, while the other third are being bribed with the money of the American tax-payer to a temporary and mercenary allegiance to the Jewish criminals who dominate the Democratic-Republican government at Washington. We behold the helpless multitudes of China, the most populous nation on earth, the sub-continent of India, with more than three hundred millions, the Indonesian archipelago, with a hundred million more, in Europe the Kingdom of Greece, half the people of the world, plagued, like America, by the exploitations of corrupt cabals of crooked politicians, motivated, in turn, by the malevolence of the nation within all nations, international Jewry,—half the people of the world engaged in unending civil war. We behold our more or less good neighbors of the South American continent, subsidized continually from the American treasury, not so forbearing or restrained as we heretofore have been in dealing with domestic traitors, violently overturning their governments and shooting the governors out of hand. We behold among the ruins of Jew violated and Jew destroyed Germany, earliest and longest home of the white race, a war, either synthetic or real, we cannot yet tell, which begins to take form with the Jew Democracy of Russia on the one side, and the Jew Democracies of America, Britain and France on the other. That is the alignment of today; tomorrow the Jews may have realigned their Democracies.

The almost mystic power of the Jew to disturb the peace of the world is manifest in the matter of Palestine. Less than half a million of these enemies of humanity have invaded it, and seeking by murder and other forms of terror to drive out the owners, have obtained recognition by the government of the United States and of the outlaw Russian oligarchs of the spurious Jewish state set up by the invaders. The object of these criminals who are terrorizing Palestine under the pretense of setting up a Jewish homeland is neither the achievement of a homeland nor the wealth which Palestine is reputed to hold. The object is to obtain possession of the holy places revered by all Christians, to defile and destroy these shrines, and thus to strike a mighty blow against Christianity which will be felt throughout the earth. This war of the Jews against Christianity has driven Christians underground in Russia, the war is spreading to America, the stronghold of the Christian faith, and threatens to involve all nations.

At home, our condition is more deplorable than is our situation abroad. The faithless administrators of our government have denied and have set at naught the fundamental of the American Constitutional system, the core of human freedom, the Anglo-Saxon birthright of this Nation, the central principle of the charter which the barons wrested from John at Runnymede, the principle rewritten in blood of the brave unto this day, that government is the servant of the individual. Upon this chief bulwark of the safety of the citizen, these perverters of the rights of men have superimposed the false doctrine of the dictator and usurper, that the citizen is the servant and the government is the master. The result is a veritable Pandora's box of old world diseases, governmental paternalism in every phase of the life of the citizen, rationing and price control of life's basic necessities, subsidizing of agriculture and industry, control of education for the purposes of propaganda, interference with the employer-employee relationship, suppression of the rights of the states to regulate suffrage and to prohibit racial mongrelization, and the taxation of the citizen to support the wars and intrigues of dictatorial masters of peoples in foreign lands. Government in America grasps the hands of the gangster at home and of the murderous usurper of government abroad, and turning pirate itself, refuses protection to the lives and the property of its own citizens whom it taxes and oppresses.

A superstate whose avowed purpose is to destroy American nationality and sovereignty is set up in America. The elected representatives of the citizens of this Country legislate embezzlement from the Treasury of the United States of the money with which to support this alien enemy within our borders.

More of this sickening story could be told, but the tale of the monstrous wickedness is too long to be further reviewed. All that has been said is not in-veective or denunciation, but the words of truth and soberness.

Who can doubt that if America is to live, she must have a new party of her patriot sons and daughters who will defend her life?

The blighting curse of America is the alien races within her body politic. Burbank, the famous naturalist and philosopher, predicted that the tide of alien immigrants from Eastern and Southern Europe, if left unchecked, would pollute the homogeneous Nordic American race, and would overwhelm the Republic. Not the South alone, with its negro problem, but all the Nation faces the fatal question of race. The white people of the South struggling heroically against miscegenation and the fate of the mulatto degenerated West Indies and South America have saved their section up to now for Aryan civilization, while in the North and East racial integrity is crumbling beneath the destructive combination of the Jew who leads the hordes of Asiatic mixed breeds in this immigrant invasion. With the pollution of blood has come the decadence of Christian faith, ethics and morals, the decay of ideals, the attitude of subservience and dependence toward government, the enfeebling of individual initiative, and the loss of the dignity of human personality.

America must have a new party in order that the white majority of its citizens may regain the primacy that is theirs, the control of the affairs of the Nation which their fathers built and made great. It must have a new party that will strike from the limbs of Columbia the fetters of foreign influence, and will restore the independence proclaimed by the Declaration at the birthday of the Republic. It must have a new party that will purge its government of corruption, cowardice, folly and treason. It must have a new party that will fearlessly and justly deal with the problem of alien races cast by the misfortune of circumstance upon its shores. It must have a new party that will foster and defend the faith of Christ, the Saviour of the World, the faith of which the white man is the historic guardian and protector.

"History is replete with predictions which once wore the hue of destiny, but which failed of fulfillment because those who uttered them saw too small an arc of the circle of events." As we lay the foundations, deep and firm, of this new party, we are careful that our vision is wide enough to comprehend the demands which the present and the future are to lay upon our Country. We hold the firm conviction that Christian Nationalism is the answer to America's demands, the remedy for her ills, the power that will make her strong and great and good once more.

This new party will renew the faith of our people in the America of the pioneers who bridged the rivers and cut the forests and conquered the wilderness, until Christian civilization flowered upon the mountains and the plains, the hills and the valleys of a vast land, the America whose glory was illuminated by Samuel Adams, and Paul Revere, and Nathan Hale and Hamilton and Jefferson, and Calhoun and Clay and Webster, and Lincoln and Lee, whose flag is sanctified by the tears of all the mothers whose sons have gone down to their heroic deaths to sustain its independence, whose liberty was won by the sword and the fighting heart of the mightiest Christian Nationalist of all time, George Washington.

God bless and save America!

Eloquent and crusading clergyman.

"There are a thousand reasons for the formation of a Christian Nationalist Party and every reason is a good one. In my address I desire to emphasize the conspiracy on the part of the organized Jewish extremist and his Christ-hating coordinates to destroy the freedom of religion among Christians in the United States of America. I have in my files a book of minutes almost as thick as a volume of the Encyclopedia Britannica recording what was supposed to have been a secret meeting of Jewish Rabbis recently held in New York City for the determined purpose of bringing pressure on our state and national governments to outlaw every expression of religious faith in court rooms, legislative assemblies, schools and public meetings. They would even outlaw the taking of an oath with one's hand on the Bible because of their hatred for the contents of the New Testament."

ELIZABETH KNAUSS

Davenport, Iowa

Crusading Nationalist and student of Communism.

"As an humble church member and a Bible teacher I have tried to make myself a student through the years of organizations seeking to destroy Christianity. I have made a considerable study of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, which is the outline of the Jewish plot to seize world power. I think I am familiar with the plot that the Reds are employing in their attempt to seize America. As an author, I have tried to write some constructive books and booklets dealing with these issues which are available through the offices of the Christian Nationalist Crusade. I shall continue to give my energies and my complete support to the high principles of Christian Americanism. My greatest inspiration in this effort is my faith in the Holy Bible and in the saving power of my Lord Jesus Christ."

HARRY A. ROMER
St. Henry, Ohio

Vice Presidential Candidate, America First Party in 1944. Prominent Marchant. Former leader for Rev. Charles E. Coughlin.

"The time has come for us to save ourselves from the dictatorship of the Jew in business and in Government. As a merchant, I have prospered not because of the Jew but in spite of the Jew. Distributors of merchandise who have had control of scarce commodities have done everything in their power to prevent Christian Nationalist business men from having merchandise to sell. They have even conducted boycotts and organized campaigns to prevent us from purchasing the things necessary. As a small town merchant, as one interested especially in farmers' affairs and as a believing Christian, I have accepted the nomination of Vice-President in all humility, hoping that my witness for the Truth of this Party Platform will serve its purpose in helping to save America and enrich its destiny."

Editor's Note: The readers are invited to give special attention to an article by Mr. Goff in the September issue (last issue) of THE CROSS AND THE FLAG entitled Religion in Russia. Mr. Goff having been at one time a member of the Communist Party is one of the nation's leading students of the Communist intrigue. He is now a crusader for Christian Nationalism and is the Party's leader in Colorado. He is also Director of the Colorado Anti-Communist League and Editor of the Pilgrim Torch, a periodical devoted to the definite work which he is doing. Due to Mr. Goff's lengthy article in the recent issue referred to, his address is not being printed herewith.

OCTOBER, 1948

DR. LELAND L. MARION
Pontiac, Michigan

Outstanding clergyman. A leader of the Nationalist movement in Michigan.

"For 28 years I have known Gerald L. K. Smith. I was the best man at his wedding. I have followed his crusading activities in opposition to Communism and in defense of Americanism down through the years. I know that the Nation needs leadership such as is provided by Mr. Smith and Mr. Romer. I have known Mr. Romer in recent years and have become convinced that he is committed completely and sincerely to the ideals set forth in the Platform of this new Party. In the years that I have known Mr. Smith he has given himself without reserve and with complete abandon to this Crusade. He has been on the right side of all the great issues. It becomes my privilege and my honor and my pleasure to nominate for the President of the United States, Gerald L. K. Smith and for the Vice-Presidency, Mr. Harry Romer."

JONATHAN ELLSWORTH PERKINS
Los Angeles, California
Clergyman, Author.

"I come to this Convention from the West Coast and from the great City of Los Angeles. As a minister of the Gospel, a student of the Scriptures and a citizen who loves his America, I am convinced the time has come for us to act without compromise concerning the great issues of this year. We must fight the deadly serpent of mongrelization. We must free America from the tyranny of the Jew and we must safeguard the racial self respect of our people. The time has come for the White Christian to rise and assert his authority in the preservation of our Christian civilization and our American national integrity."

GERALD L. K. SMITH

WILL SPEAK IN

Public Invited

Hear for yourself. Be your own judge concerning the crusading integrity of this man. This is the man they tried to stop with smear — with ridicule — with murder — but he carries on stronger than ever as the head of the largest anti-Communist movement in America. He writes for over 200 periodicals. He has over three million enrolled followers. Nationalist organizations.

HERE'S WHAT THEY SAY

H. L. Mencken, in the Baltimore Evening Post: "I have never heard on this or any other radio station a more powerful and Billy Sunday. He began his career as a radio orator of this generation."

Lowell Thomas: "Gerald L. K. Smith is the greatest orator of this generation."

Westbrook Pegler: "Gerald L. K. Smith is the greatest orator of this generation."

The subject of...

LD L. K. SMITH:

"Smith is the greatest orator since LaFollette, Bryan, Roosevelt, and Lincoln."

"Smith is the greatest orator of this generation."

"Smith is the greatest orator of this generation."

"Smith is the greatest orator of this generation."

GERALD L. K. S.

JONATHAN ELLSWORTH PERKINS
Noted Writer and Lecturer, will preside.

DR. WESLEY SWIFT

by the anti-Christian, pro-Communist press to challenge the Christian Nationalists

SPECIAL ATTENTION!

Mr. Smith and his Nationalist followers believe the motion picture art to be one of the great arts. Mr. Smith believes that Hollywood should be developed and supported only after the alien traitors and Stalin lovers have been removed from positions of power, influence and control. In his historic address he will name many whom he believes should be kicked out at once and brought to justice.

CURBS IMPORT TAXES

13. Internal taxation on imported goods, whether by America or one of its states, may be outlawed by ITO on the ground that imported products should be given the same favorable treatment accorded national products, except as ITO may dictate for undeveloped nations.

14. Tariff concessions may be withdrawn with ITO approval if they are found to injure development of home industry.

15. Import quotas may be set if they promote economic development of less developed nations.

16. Import quotas also may be set by nations whose currency reserves may be found to be threatened by ITO.

17. ITO may permit intergovernmental agreements, when nations can show they are threatened by price declines.

18. ITO may formulate a foreign investment code in promotion of articles of the charter which call for reasonable treatment for foreign investors.

19. Disputes between a nation and its foreign investors are placed under ITO jurisdiction, with right of appeal to the international court of justice.

PROMOTES PRICE CONTROL

20. Countries which have disposable capital funds, equipment and technology are bound under ITO supervision not to impose unreasonable or unjustifiable impediments that would prevent other members from obtaining facilities for economic development. ITO would determine what is unreasonable or unjustifiable.

21. Nations may claim exemption to quotas and tariffs on the ground that national security would be impaired.

22. Price control and rationing within nations would be promoted by ITO relaxation of quota and rate limitations.

23. Member nations would be allowed to reserve a portion of total screen time for domestic motion pictures in contradiction to open trade aims.

24. Under certain conditions, quantitative restrictions may be similarly allowed for other items, although fair treatment must be given to all exporters of member countries.

ONE VOTE FOR U. S.

The articles would discourage nullifications of world trade aims, except as defined in the exceptions, by prescribing invisible tariffs, the burdensome red tape that surrounds trading in various countries: outlawing requirements for mixing domestic products with imported products such as domestic alcohol with imported gasoline, and would prevent state enterprises from circumventing regulations by subjecting them to the same requirements as private businesses.

The 106 ITO articles would be administered by the ITO executive board. The United States would have one permanent voice on the board. Britain and France could muster four. It is provided that Britain, Canada, France, and the Benelux nations—Belgium, Netherlands, and Luxembourg, which are allied with France and Britain—would each have one. China and India would be permanent members.

The eighth permanent nation has not been chosen. New Dealers still hope this will go to the soviet union on the theory that that police state nation can be prevailed upon to lift the iron curtain and adopt free enterprise. Ten nations would be elected to various terms on the executive board. Opponents of the scheme maintain that the majority—there is no veto in the executive board—could always be expected to vote to share American benefits and thus vote against American interests.

MY DEATH WOULD PLEASE THE JEWS

During my recent illness when I almost died from a dose of arsenic poison administered by a treacherous enemy, the following sentence appeared on the editorial page of the B'nai B'rith Messenger: "Gerald L. K. Smith is sick, nothing trivial we hope." It is not customary to write things like that concerning our worst enemies. It is considered bad taste approaching the criminal. The fact is that the pro-Stalin Jewish extremists that edit this paper would gladly encourage a bonus to anyone that could "rub me out." The screams of those who desired the death of our Lord could have been inherited by those who still hate the name of Jesus Christ and anyone who comes completely to the defense of our Lord.

THE COOK'S STOMACH TURNS

Most of the people in Hollywood, California, are good people. Ninety-eight per cent of the ones connected with the film industry are honest-to-God Americans who are trying to earn an honest living. The corruption, the communism and the perversion which characterizes the industry is limited largely to the front office moguls, the big shots and their preferred ilk. They are the ones that determine the contents of pictures.

We were not surprised upon our recent visit to Hollywood to learn that the decent stars who have character and conviction won't permit their own children to see the very pictures in which they are featured. What a paradox and what an indictment!

DR. WESLEY SWIFT—COURAGEOUS FIGHTER

Dr. Wesley Swift is a young man thirty-five years of age. He is a brilliant and eloquent preacher. More than that, he is a Christian Nationalist Crusader. He is an important factor in the Christian Nationalist movement on the West Coast. He spoke with me at the Hollywood High School Auditorium, at the El Patio Theatre, and at two great rallies at the Embassy Auditorium in Los Angeles. It is to be hoped that he can make a tour in the central states in the not distant future.

IMMIGRATION BARS DOWN

Those who conspire against American tradition now hope to flood this nation with immigrants, mostly Jewish. The election of Truman has nothing to do with this because Thomas E. Dewey had promised as much along this line as Truman. United States Senator Revercomb was fought by both Truman and Dewey because he tried to protect America against this flood tide of Jews. His enemies
